EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION OF REGIONAL & LOCAL AUTHORITIES FOR LIFELONG LEARNING

MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURE

Who can become a EARLALL member?

- The association comprises active members who are either full members or partner members, observers and honorary members.
 - The full members of the association are the regional and local authorities at the second-level of elected government of countries of the European Union, or countries that are members of a European free trade agreement, with responsibility for permanent education policy.
 - Other regional and local authorities can be approved as partner members.
 - The observers and the honorary members can only participate in the Board of Directors, the General Meeting and/or the work groups upon invitation by the Chairman of the association and only in an advisory capacity.

Application Procedure

- The admission of new members is submitted to the following conditions:
 1. The active members agree to pay a contribution and are represented at the General Meeting where they have a deliberation and voting power.
 2. The honorary members are appointed by the General Meeting upon proposal from the Board of Directors and are natural persons who distinguished themselves in the field of permanent education. The honorary members do not pay a contribution and have only an advisory role.
 3. The observers are representatives of the institutions or public organisations that may contribute to the realisation of the objectives of the association.
 4. The active member candidates direct their application to the Chairman of the Board of Directors through any means of communication. They should adhere to the articles of association and rules of the association. They are approved by the General Meeting upon proposal from the Board of Directors.
 5. The General Meeting can decide without appeal and without any motivation not to accept a candidate as active member.

Membership Fees

- The active members pay a base yearly contribution of EUR 2,500 as a minimum.
- The full members pay furthermore an additional amount of which the maximum will be fixed by the General Meeting upon proposal from the Board of Directors, based on the number of inhabitants and on the Gross National Product of the area. The full members of the Eastern countries are exempted from the payment of the additional amount.
